

ImPACt Event Role: IMPACT VOLUNTEER

Purpose/Objective: ImPACt volunteers give their time to assist with a specific ImPACt event, which is held on a single date. Through these events, PennPAC volunteers work with either a nonprofit's constituents on a skills-based program or they work directly with the nonprofit to conduct a single-evening strategy session on an issue or topic of importance to the client.

Location: The ImPACt Volunteer will complete his/her role through a combination of advance planning as well as physical attendance at the ImPACt event.

Key Responsibilities:

Serves as a consultant to the ImPACt Client on a deep dive around a strategic issue.

-OR-

Provides expertise and/or personal and professional experience to the ImPACt Clients' constituents.

Reports to: ImPACt Leader

Qualifications: No specific qualifications or experience is necessary other than a willingness to offer your expertise, experience and enthusiasm to the ImPACt Client.

Length of Position: The ImPACt Volunteer's role will be limited to a single event date and possibly an hour of prep work in advance of the event.

Time Commitment: All ImPACt events are limited to a single date, generally lasting no more than three (3) hours, inclusive of all event activities. ImPACt Volunteers may be provided with some background information in advance of the event to ensure that the event itself will be more productive, given the limited time with the Client. Generally, there are three (3) ImPACt events held annually. Volunteers are requested to complete a post event survey.

Training/Support: All information necessary to serve as an ImPACt Volunteer will be provided to the volunteer. Additional support will be provided from both PennPAC's leadership and the Client's team onsite.

Benefits: A fun and meaningful volunteer experience, working with Penn alumni while gaining valuable project and leadership skills. Gain exposure to the nonprofit industry.

While PennPAC volunteers are alumni of the University of Pennsylvania, PennPAC, Inc. is a separately incorporated 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, not affiliated with or controlled in any way by the University of Pennsylvania.
